AN ORDINANCE.

At a meeting of the council held January 14, 1890, the following ordinance was adopted:

Be it ordained by the council of the city of Roanoke upon the petition of the Roanoke and Southern Railway company, by its president, filed on the 3rd day of December, 1889,

1. That the sergeant and judges of election for the said city of Roanoke do open a poll at the several voting precincts of said city, on Tuesday, the 18th day of February, 1890, and take the sense of the freehold voters on the question, whether the said council shall be authorized, in the name of and for the use of the city, to cause to be issued, bonds to an amount not exceeding one hundred thousand dollars for the purpose of making a second and further subscription to the capital stock of the Roanoke and Southern Railway company.

2. The said election shall be held and the authority to issue said bonds and raise said subscription shall be upon the following terms and conditions namely:

1. The said council may subscribe for the stock of said company to the amount of one hundred thousand dollars, provided, that the aggregate debt of the city shall not exceed ten per centum of the assessed value of the property, real and personal, within the city limits.

2. That the said company shall, within ninety days after said subscription is made, commence to construct its line of road at a point within one mile from the present city limits of the city of Roanoke, and shall prosecute the same in a bona fide manner with all reasonable diligence to its completion, and furthermore, that within six months after the work shall be so begun, the said company shall connect between the point just indicated and its terminus within the present limits of the city of Roanoke.

3. The bonds of the city of Roanoke shall bear five per centum interest per annum and shall be redeemable in thirty years from their date, and shall be issued and delivered to the Roanoke and Southern Railway company, upon the certificate of the chief engineer of said railway of the completion of the grading of each and every mile of said road from Roanoke city southward, the city of Roanoke shall deliver to said railway the bonds of said city to the amount of five thousand dollars and upon like certificate of the engineer for each and every mile of said road when the same structure is complete, and ready for operation, the said city shall deliver to said railway bonds of said city to the amount of five thousand dollars per mile until the entire sum of $100,000 provided for in this ordinance shall be delivered.

4. Upon the delivery of each installment of said bonds to the railway company the said city shall deliver to the said railway certificates of stock in said railway to the amount of said bonds.

5. The subscription when made by the city council shall be upon the terms and conditions set forth, and whenever the said company fail to comply with said terms and conditions, then, and in that event, the said subscription, at the option of said city, shall be void.

6. The election shall be held and conducted in the manner provided for under section 1243 and 1244 of the code of Virginia, and the question submitted shall be determined under the provisions of section 12, chapter V, of the charter of said city.

7. The sergeant shall cause a certified copy of this ordinance to be published in the daily papers of this city, and shall post a copy of the same at each of the voting places for thirty days previous to the day of election.

8. A copy—test: GEO. L. BENNETT, Clerk.

In obedience to the foregoing order, notice is hereby given that the polls will be opened at the several voting precincts of the city of Roanoke at sunrise on TUESDAY, February 18, 1890 for a vote to be taken as specified in said order.

AN ORDINANCE.

At a meeting of the council held January 14, 1890, the following ordinance was adopted:

Whereas, it is deemed expedient to raise the sum of $20,000 for the purpose of founding a hospital for the reception of sick and disabled persons within the city limits.

Be it ordained by the council of the city of Roanoke, That, for the purpose before mentioned, the president of the council is hereby authorized and directed to execute for and in the name of the city of Roanoke, bonds to the amount of $20,000, dated at such time in the future not later than the 1st day of July, 1890, as he may deem advisable, and payable thirty years after date, said bonds to be for the sum of $500 each and to bear interest at the rate of 6 per centum per annum, payable semi-annually, and to be in style and form such as are known as coupon bonds, the coupons to be signed by the city treasurer.

The clerk of the council is hereby authorized and directed to affix to such bonds the corporate seal of the city, and to duly attest the same. The above said bonds shall contain a clause providing that after the lapse of fifteen years from their date, the said bonds shall be redeemable at any time, at the option of the city.

2. These bonds, when duly executed, shall be turned over by the president to the treasurer of the city, who, under the direction and control of the finance committee, shall sell the same for and on account of the city.

3. The sergeant of the city and the commissioners of election hereinafter named, are hereby directed to open the polls at the regular voting places of the city on the 8th day of February, 1890, and take the sense of the freehold voters of this city, for and against the endorsement of this ordinance.

4. The mayor of the city is requested to give due notice of the said election, setting forth the time and place thereof.

5. The judges of election in the several wards are hereby appointed commissioners to conduct the said election, and in case of the failure of any one or more of them to act, then the place or places shall be filled in the manner provided by law in the case of regular elections.

6. The said election shall be conducted in the manner prescribed by the state law for the conduct of elections. Ballots for the ordinance shall read "For the Hospital Ordinance." Ballots against the ordinance shall read "Against the Hospital Ordinance."

7. The commissioners of election shall immediately after the closing of the polls count the ballots deposited, and shall within two days thereafter make a written return of the result of the said election to the president of the council, specifying the number of votes cast for and the number of votes cast against the endorsement of this ordinance, and the president, at the next regular meeting of the council, shall order said returns to be spread on the records of council. And the said commissioner shall, furthermore, seal up in separate packages the ballot cast for and against this ordinance within two days after the closing of said polls, transmit the same to the clerk of the council, to be kept among the archives of the council, and the said packages are not to be opened during the space of twelve months thereafter without the order of the president.
